Aqua, which is also celebrating its 125th anniversary this year, is being recognized for its decades-long support of the Chamber through financial contributions and volunteerism. Aqua is one five companies selected for the prestigious award from a group of 54 companies that were also considered.

"We are honored to be among those companies chosen for this special honor," said Aqua Chairman Nicholas DeBenedictis. "It's particularly meaningful as we were founded in Delaware County and are celebrating our own 125th anniversary this year—a year in which we will have invested more than $40 million in infrastructure improvements in our 'home county.'"

Aqua was founded in 1886 by a group of Swarthmore College professors as the Springfield Water Company. During that time, the water company has grown to serve a approximately 1.4 million residents in 30 counties throughout Pennsylvania, including about 1 million in southeastern Pennsylvania. The company serves more customers in Delaware County than any other.
